

HUME CITY COUNCIL IN PARTNERSHIP
WITH THE HUME INTERFAITH NETWORK
INVITE YOU TO A CONFERENCE ON
"One Community, Many Faiths"

LEARN about diverse faiths in Hume City
RESPECT each other's beliefs
EXCHANGE ideas to work towards common action
COLLABORATE to help create harmonious society

Keynote Speaker: "Creating Religious Harmony and Social Cohesion in Hume"
Professor Des Cahill, O.A.M
Professor of Intercultural Studies at RMIT University and Chairperson of Religions for Peace Australia

The Conference will include presentations about the following faiths: Indigenous, Buddhism, Christianity, Hinduism, Islam and Sikhism

Date: Tuesday 29 November 2011
Time: 9.00 am – 4.00 pm
Venue: Hume Global Learning Centre (Rooms 4 & 5)
1093 Pascoe Vale Road, Broadmeadows
Cost: Free (morning tea and lunch provided)
RSVP: by 22 November 2011 to
Dalal Samaan on 9205 2377
dalals@hume.vic.gov.au
by completing the registration form

Note: Please let us know if you need an interpreter