

PRAYER INTO PRACTICE

KEEPING RELIGION RELEVANT

A DAY SEMINAR FOR FAITH LEADERS IN VICTORIA

HOW DO OUR FAITH TRADITIONS
GUIDE US TO RESPOND TO THE
MANY COMPETING CHALLENGES
OF OUR TIMES?

Even faith leaders involved in interfaith work for their communities rarely if ever get the chance for more in-depth discussion and interaction with leaders of other faiths on the issues that arise in Australian life today. This day seminar provides an opportunity for leaders of the many faith expressions found in Victoria today to meet respectfully and to share our tradition, thoughts and experiences on four pressing issues:

- Religions in Crisis – Responding and Recovering
- Recognising and Welcoming the Other
- Environment – Climate Emergency
- Youth Engagement

MONDAY 17 JUNE

9.30 AM-4 PM

OR STAY FOR COFFEE & CHAT
TO 5PM

Venue: Leo Baeck Centre for Progressive Judaism, 31 Harp Road East Kew.

Parking to rear, electric vehicle charge point, bicycle racks, buses 302, 304 and 624, 48 tram to Harp Junction, stop ID 4005

PRESENTERS INCLUDE:

Sheik
Ala'a Elzokm

Rabbi
Shamir Caplan

Swami
Sunishthananda

Lisa Buchner,
Stand Up

Rev
Alex Sangster

Dharmachari
Tejopala Rawls

Rabbi Jonathan
Keren-Black

Mark Zirnsak
Uniting Church

Professor Emeritus
Joseph Camilleri

Sister
Brigid Arthur

Food will be strictly vegetarian/halal – and there will be suitable provision for Muslim and other prayer.

Registration fee $50/$25 unwaged including luncheon: trybooking.com/BBIRB

Part of the Month of Interfaith Activities: 2019 and Beyond, at Leo Baeck Centre.

This event is being run by the Leo Baeck Centre for Progressive Judaism in conjunction with the organisations below and gratefully recognise the support of Multicultural Affairs and Social Cohesion Division of the Victorian State Government.

East Kew Uniting Church

Boroondara
Interfaith Network
Connect, inspire, support

